The business community yesterday morn.
ing received the intelligence that Henry F.
Phillips was dead: The fluttering of crape Phillips was dead: The fluttering of crape from the store-door of H. F. Phillips & Stein gave many the first instinction of the sad event. For about three years he had been a sufferer of heart disease, and at 1 o'clock Monday morning he breathed his last. It was a sharp, quick attack of the disease, and his life was ended in a few moments. Saturday at the store and Sunday in his home circle he appeared in the best of health and spirits. Sunday morning he attended St. John's German Lutheran church, where his youngest child was christened. In the afternoon he went to the rooms of Richmond Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, of which order he was a member. Later in the evening he returned to his residence, No 668 north Sixth street, and about half-past 9 o'clock retired.

HEAVY BREATHING. About I o'clock his wife was aroused by his heavy breathing. She noticing that her nusband was gasping fer breath, immedi-ately aroused the household, and messen-gers sent for physicians. Dr. Tabor arrived gers sent for physicians. Dr. Tabor arrived first, but when he approached the bedside he pronounced Mr. Phillips dead. Dr. Grebe came soon after Dr. Tabor.

Mr. Phillips was a son of Mr. H. A. Phillips, and was born in Kichmond thirty-five years ago. His mother is still living. He mas one brother and one sister—Mr. Charles H. Phillips, police commissioner, and Miss Katie Phillips.

Mr. Phillips was a clerk in the store of E. B. Taylor & Co. for about fifteen years. Five years ago he and Mr. Lewis Stein established a wholesale and retail china store under the firm name of H. F. Phillips & Stein.

Committee. About sever years are with three children, the eldest being six years old. Mr. Phillips was liked by all, loved by many, and his death is a matter of regret to the entire community. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from St. John's Lutheran church, of which the deceased was a member. The service will be in both English and German. Richmond Lodge of Elks, Powhatan Club and the City Committee will attend the funeral. Mr. Phillips was a thirty-second degree Mason, being a member of Metropolitan Lodge, and swill be buried with Masonic honors. He was also a member of Richmond Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, and that body will be called to meet at 2 P. M.

The following will be the pall-bearers: Honorary—H. G. Hartman, Preston Belvin, Lewis Stein, Maurice Claggett, R. E. Tyler, E. R. Faylor, Jeferson Walnee, and s.

MR. JOHN WHITWORTH.

MR, John Whittworth.

Mr. John Whittworth died at his residence, 119 south Eifth street, yesterday.
Mr. Whitworth was born in the town of Rochdale, Lancashire, Eng., July 6, 1819, and eventually took up the cooperage business. He migrated to this country in the vear 1843. Not being able to find a suitable opening in his own business he engaged in the manufacture of woolens in Massachusetts. In the year 1847 he was engaged to come to Richmond to take charge of a branch of a woolen manufacture. Finding, after a time, an opening to go into his require business, he entered upon it with a will and energy that brought him a comfortable competency. Eight years ago he suffered a slight shock of paraiysis, but continued his business until four years ago, when he retired, and from thence has steadily declined until his death.

GOOD MAN.

The Military Fund.

The Military Fund.

The Military Board met at the Governor's office yesterday afternoon to make the annual apportionment to the military of the State. This apportionment is made from the appropriation given to the military by the General Assembly. The Board determined that $2.50 shall go to the infantry, $3.50 no the cavalry, artillery, and mounted officers, and $2 to each field and staff officer present at inspection.

This apportionment is reckoned by the number of men present at the last inspection. For instance, if a company of infantry at the last inspection paraded fifty men, that company receives $125. If a company of artillery paraded fifty men, that company gets $115.

Governor McKinney will from the fund appropriated by the United States Government order $6,000 in fatigue uniforms for the different arms of the service, to be used where they are most needed in the State.
